My Dear Judge: I have noticed with much interest your withdrawal from the Democratic party and espousal of the People's party. This action meets my approval, since I have concluded to ential myself in the same cause. The financial plank in the Republican platform must drive from that farty any one who believes as I do, and the anarchical plank in the Democratic platform must lose to it many persons who believe in the protection of American citizens at home as well as abroad. The platform of the People's party, on the contrary, has no objectionable principles, and offers a political home any man can proudly enter. Yours truly,

Mr. Grant has been heretofore a Republican.

Mr. Grant has been heretofore a Republican. Judge McDonald is a recent convert to Populism from the Democratic ranks.

Dr. Gallagher insisted upon paying for them himself, and a check for $25 was thereupon handed to him. As soon as he received it however, he secreted the money behind his back, and from a few incoherent sentences that fell from his lips, it seemed that he expressed the fear that people were watching him in order to rob him of his mones. Whenever any question has come up with reference to the payment of bills, Dr. Gallagher, since he has been in this country, has petulantly insisted upon defraying them himself, and, therefore, a certain sum of money has been given into his keeping.

General O'Beirne was at the Savoy during the whole of yesterday afternoon. He conferred with Dr. Gallagher's relatives as to the sanitarium which was most appropriate for the patient. Utilimately Amityville was decided on, and in the course of the next day or two Dr. Gallagher will be conveyed there. During our, temporary retirement we have been constantly in the market, and have purchased all the destrable goods we could find at low prices. We are therefore fully prepared to offer our customers genuine by rights in every department.

"An emphatically no! We do not expect a dull season. Our firm is and always has been progressive. Dull season so have never been known to us and we do not expect even a dull day, if ample capital, new ideas, new methods, unlimited energy and constant study of the wants of the people will assure for our new establishment the liberal patronage which we so long enjoyed in our old quarters. Business at any time is to a great extent what a man or firm makes it. With right goods and right prices, rightly kept before the public, there is no danger of dull times.

As soon as the leases on property adjoining their new quarters expire a mammoth new building will be creeted for flaumann Rotchers, whose immense and varied stock will consist of furniture, carpets, china, glass, wooden and tim ware, baby-carriages, pictures, hedding and all other articles of use or otrament required for housekeeping.
